

Dr. Denise Healy

Ladies and gentlemen, it is my great honor to introduce today's speaker, Denise Healy—a leading expert in relationship restoration and organizational change management. With over 40 years of dedicated experience, Denise has transformed countless lives and workplaces by pioneering compassionate, effective strategies for healing fractured relationships and fostering accountable, connected teams.

Denise's extensive work with at-risk populations and corporate teams alike has shaped new, research-backed approaches to conflict resolution, communication, and accountability. Her insights are not just theoretical—they are grounded in real-world application, delivering strategies that inspire resilience and sustainable change in both personal and professional settings.

Please join me in welcoming Denise Healy, as she brings her wealth of experience to guide us in building compassionate relationships and cultures of respect within our organizations!